Earlier this week, the school was awarded the 'Music Mark' in recognition of our commitment to providing high quality music education for our pupils. Nicholas Steel from Gloucestershire Music, came to assembly on Monday morning to present the award.

Today, everyone at school visited the War Memorial for our annual Remembrance Service. The children behaved beautifully, holding one minute's silence at 11am.

This year, to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the end of World War 1, two wreaths were laid. The first, from the whole school, was laid by Lola and Florie. The second, made by Hedgehog Class, laid by Jack H and Holly P. Each Hedgehog pupil made their own poppy for the wreath, making it extra special.

There were readings by Papoula, Amelia and Shea, and Fox Class read poems; 'In Flanders Fields' by John McCrae was read by Lacie, Maddi and Izzy W; Tallulah, Lyla, Leo, Amy and Sophia read 'Where Have All The Flowers Gone?'.

Thank you to parents for your donations to The Royal British Legion, purchasing poppies and other items from the office.

On Sunday, Lacie will represent the school at the Sherborne Remembrance Service, by wearing her school uniform and laying another wreath on our behalf. Thank you to Byron Hadley for supplying us with the wreath for this occasion.
